VOLUNTEER
for the SPCA of Texas

The SPCA of Texas is the leading animal welfare agency in North Texas. We operate two animal shelters, located near downtown Dallas and in McKinney, which, together with our community partners for offsite adoptions, find homes for more than 6,000 animals each year. We do not euthanize animals for lack of space and we do not place time limits on animals housed in our shelters. We also operate public veterinary clinics in West Dallas, South Oak Cliff and McKinney to provide high-quality pet care at affordable prices and we collaborate with community partners to spay or neuter tens of thousands of animals each year.

In a typical year, our five-member Rescue and Investigations team responds to 2,000 calls and rescues more than 1,000 abandoned or cruelly treated animals in 8 North Texas counties. Our education and outreach programs reach more than 20,000 Texans each year with a message of compassion and responsibility.

Our independent non-profit organization is not affiliated with the ASPCA or any other humane society and we do not receive taxpayer funding. Your support helps us make life better for more than 50,000 animals and the people who love them - right here in our community.

As a volunteer, you'll save and enrich animal lives, do good things for the community, make new friends, discover new skills and enjoy tail wags, purrs and happy faces. The SPCA of Texas offers volunteers a wide variety of opportunities to fit your schedule and talents.

Thank you so very much for your help.

How to Become an SPCA of Texas Volunteer

Complete a Volunteer Hub account and fill out the Volunteer Application. After the application is completed, please visit our payment form to submit your non-refundable volunteer fee of $35. This fee is used to offset the cost of aprons, badges, along with covering basic administrative costs and the background check, which is run after orientation.

Register for orientation. After your payment is verified, you will be able to sign up for orientation through VolunteerHub.

Attend a volunteer orientation. Volunteer orientations are held six times per month (three times at each of our two shelters each month), are approximately two hours long, and serve to jump-start you on your path to becoming a volunteer through a presentation by our Volunteer team, interactions with the Volunteer team and other new volunteers, watching instructional videos and other fun and enlightening activities. After you complete the new volunteer orientation, your background check will be completed and you'll be ready to schedule a time to come in to talk with our team about how you'd like to help us!

Choose your job(s) and train for your new volunteer job(s). You'll Interview for a specific volunteer position or positions you would like to fill. This is as simple as chatting with our Volunteer team to determine which of the available volunteer jobs you'd like to spend your time doing. Our goal is to make the perfect match for you and the animals. Next, You will be placed in a training program geared specifically for your chosen job(s) to provide you the best support as you help us provide the animals exceptional care and a loving home. By the end of this training, you'll be able to begin walking dogs, hanging out with cats and so much more!

Volunteer! The SPCA of Texas volunteer staff and volunteer mentors will work with you to guide and motivate you along the way.
