

Summertime frozen treats for dog

The weather is hot and our dogs are just as over it as we are. If you are looking for ways to keep your dog busy while he is stuck inside all day or while he taking a break in the shade, here are some recipes for cool summer treats. These treats can be stuffed into Kongs, hollow marrow bones, paper cups or cupcake liner. For small dogs you can fill an ice cube tray for a dozen small treats.

When filling Kongs, you'll need to plug up the smaller hole if the filling is liquid, so it doesn't fall out. You can also plug the larger hole to make it harder for the dog to get the filling out. Some thinks you can use to plug the holes: a cut piece of vegetable fruit (no grapes--they are bad for dogs), cheese, dog treats, peanut butter, veggies such as a baby carrot, or anything else that will fit. You can also add dog biscuits, fruit, or veggies (or whatever your dog likes) to the Kong along with one of the recipes below, to make layers.

Homemade Frosty Paws #3

- 1 quart vanilla yogurt
- 1 medium banana
- 2 T peanut butter (I use natural style)
- 2 T honey

Puree the banana in a food processor (a blender would probably work fine). Add the peanut butter and honey and continue processing until smooth. Add yogurt and process just long enough to blend all ingredients together. Place 18 small paper cups (bathroom size) in a baking pan (one 9x13 or two 8x8 work well). Fill paper cups to about 2/3's full. An ice cream scoop or a measuring cup makes the job easier. Freeze until solid. Transfer the frozen treats to zip-lock bags for storing in the freezer.
